Helping Art Institute Students

- Collaboration between fields (fashion, game art, interior and exterior design, culinary, photography and graphic design)
- Learning to promote themselves (marketing)
- Leveraging virtual worlds to showcase talents
- Marrying the virtual and real world (marketing and promotion through both virtual and real worlds)

How we are different

- Experience with virtual worlds and recognized its potential
- Sales and Marketing Experience
- Colorado-based and promotes Colorado talent
- Postmoderna SL is a project that leverages all of the above and thinks outside the box (not mobile or casual game-focused)
